

I'm from Australia

NICHOLALA

Some strange things happen here...

Hello! I'm
Nichola... la... la...

Where does reality
end and imagination
start?

Come see the world through my eyes!

The old people here
say that this tree
cries the night before
someone dies

We live in a tiny village in the countryside

What are you doing?

Ghosts of soldiers from long ago can be seen crossing the river sometimes

And then there are all the strange
things in my mind...

But I live in Korea
with my husband

He is Korean

아니요!
